

Climate Justice and Solidarity with Africa

Mamadou MBODJI

Vice President Naturefriends International

President African Naturefriends Network

23.6.2021

I. INTRODUCTION

- Global warming / Threat to humanity
- All vectors / All victims
- Unsustainable production and consumption systems
- Inequalities means of resilience
- Greenhouse gas emissions less than 4%
- Negative impacts more than 95%
- Recurrence of natural disasters and calamities
- Over 2°C / economic development undermined

II. THE IMPACTS

1. BIODIVERSITY

- 42% endangered endemic species
- 850 endangered animal and plant species
- Loss of 0.49 % forest areas/year
- Depleted biodiversity
- Sustainable tourism on hold

II. THE IMPACTS

2. HABITAT

- Glacier melt
- Coastal erosion
- Submergence of human settlements
- Recurrent flooding

II. THE IMPACTS

3. PRIMARY SECTOR

- Reduction of farmland
- Long and repeated droughts
- Disappearance of mangroves/salination of land
- Decline in food and fish stocks
- Loss of food sovereignty

II. THE IMPACTS

4. VULNERABILITY SYMBOLS

Three prototypes of climate disaster in Africa

- KILIMANDJARO - the water reservoir
- LAKE TCHAD - the food-pantry
- CONGO BASIN - the storage and pharmacy

III. CLIMATE JUSTICE

- Climate crisis - painfully unfair reality
- Inequality of means of resilience
- Awareness raising in industrialized and emerging countries
- Climate justice – an absolute urgency for Africa
- Climate justice – a global responsibility

III. CLIMATE JUSTICE

a. Mitigation

b. Adaptation

c. Solidarity

- Through participatory projects
- On an individual basis
- Through federations

III. CLIMATE JUSTICE

Naturefriends Climat Fund

- Senegal:
 - a. Reforestation in the Landscape of the Year Maka gouye, Koumbidia socé
 - b. Reforestation Nord Senegal: Ndombo, Dimat, Loboudou, Doué
- Gambie: Korop, Janjanbureh
- Mali: storage building for agricultural products
- Togo: Bank reforestation and fish farming
- Guinée: improved traditional stoves/combating excessive deforestation and alleviating rural women's household chores

IV. CONCLUSION

- Individual and collective commitment
- African civil society initiatives
- Climate justice – a moral duty
- Selfishness of states/solidarity of peoples
- Naturefriends: human and planet solidarity

LIEBE DAMEN UND HERREN
VIELEN DANK !