At the moment, the longing for a change of scenery is great for most of us, but when and how the next trip will be possible is still unclear... The interactive travel puzzle from respect_NFI is just the thing to shorten the waiting time and at the same time get exciting tips for planning the next trip. Join in and build your own sustainable travel picture!

Vienna, 1 March 2021

Our travel puzzle consists of 6 puzzle pieces, the "modules" of a journey: from planning the trip and being on the road, to accommodation and food, to activities and getting to know the country and its people. Behind each puzzle piece is information and practical tips on socially and environmentally responsible travel and a pleasant holiday. Click on the first piece of the puzzle and you're in!
