Overtourism: Tourists overrun beloved holiday destinations - to the suffering of the population

The subject of overtourism is prominent in the press and preoccupies many specialists of the tourism industry, but especially the tourists from the countries visited.

Overtourism is an achievement of the 21st century, which is characterized by the mass crowding of destinations and is now a global problem.

The most dramatic effects of overtourism are visible in the countries of the former socialist block and in the countries of the former Soviet Union, where tourism has not yet fully developed.

Tourism is becoming a mass phenomenon, and destinations are becoming full of tourists.

The problem of overtourism is not only environmental,
but also social and economic.
